The Pastor's Pen...

Dear Parishioners, Shalom in the Lord's name. On this first Sunday of August, let's begin with a rather unusual question. Were you ever hungry for something but you didn't know what? For example, you open the door of the refrigerator, look at everything on the shelves and say: "I'm hungry for something but not for any of that."
Or put it still another way. Do you have everything in life that's important; a family, a job, a healthy lifestyle and an income but still feel something's missing?

If our answer is yes, then today's Scripture readings have something important that we often forget. It's this: There are two kinds of hunger in this world. First, there's a Physical Hunger, which food can satisfy. Second, there's a Spiritual Hunger, which no food in the world can satisfy.
Again, if our answer is still yes, then we'll want to take seriously today's Bible readings. For they contain an important message for us. Jesus sums up that message with these words: "I am the bread of life. He who comes to me will never be hungry. He who believes in me will never be thirsty."

The message for this Sunday is simply this: "Jesus is the missing piece of the puzzle of our lives. There's a deep-down hunger and thirst in all of us that only Jesus can fill." This message has brought new meaning to millions of lives. And it can bring meaning to our lives too, if we but let it be. Some people believe that this Sunday is just another day in our life journey but the truth is in Jesus, as proclaimed in the letter to the Ephesians.
Thanks for all your contributions towards the development of our Parish. Enjoy the weekend and safe week ahead.

Blessings.

Simone Ah Lo sm.
